HARRINGTON DEFEATED BY BOBBY JACKSON

THREE KNOCKOUTS FEATURE ATHLETIC CLUB CARD TUESDAY NIGHT

Bobby Jackson won a ten round decision from Johnny Harrington of Dallas in the Legion Athletic Club boxing card here Tuesday night.

The card was fast and three knockouts featured the fistic fetes of the preliminary fighters.

Although Harrington rallied after he had been knocked down for the count of nine in the first round and took the fourth, seventh and ninth rounds by slight margins, the Fort Sam Houston ace, walloped the Dallas star in the other rounds, winning by a wide margin.

Jackson came out of his corner at the bell in the first round and before Harrington had time to get away, swung with his right and missed, then countering with a left, pummeled the Dallas boy about the ring. A right to the jaw sent Harrington to the floor for the count of nine.

Harrington was crafty, he took the count then weathered the round. He was stronger at the finish while Jackson looked tired, although full of fight.

The curtain raiser of four rounds went to L. Matula who won by a shade from Jimmy Reynolds.

All other events featured knockouts. The dope was upset when Kid Haddox who did not take time to resin his feet and look bewildered as he faced about for the bell, staged a sensational finish by knocking out Carl Eans in the third round. The Kid used a straight arm right after he had been smothered with punches in the first round by the shifty Cameron boy.

A disappointment was the showing of Joe Gurecky against Guy Butler of Gause. The Gause boy, a real fighter knocked out Gurecky in 59 seconds of the first round, the referee counting him out on the outside of the ring where he had landed when the flying fists of Butler had beat him to the canvas. Butler scored a knockdown in the first five seconds of the round. He came out of his corner like Jack Dempsey and looks the part of a real fighter. Fans gave him a great ovation as they saw his flash and form in those 59 seconds.

Speedy Braden won a clear decision over Doyle Rice of Ben Arnold in the six round semi-final when Rice was automatically out after he went to his knee without being hit in the last half of the fourth round. Rice took much punishment in the earlier rounds and was down several times, once for the count of nine. Braden was a terror, his arms flailing out with deadly precision. Rice staking a rally in the third round jarred Braden badly with a left hook to the jaw and pummeling in the body. Braden finished strong and danced as the gloves were being removed.

The show was exciting and full of action. The main event at times was slow. Both men are divergent fighters, Harrington taller and with greater reach was hard target for Jackson. Likewise Jackson was hard for Harrington. Jackson taunted the Dallas boy in several rounds to come on in and fight, but Harrington who is a smart boy, took his time and was lucky to win three of the ten rounds.

A large crowd of fans were present for the card which is the second to be staged by the athletic club.

Thanks Santa Claus

Cameron, Texas, April 23, 1928.

Dear Santa:

I will write you a few lines and let you know I have the measles. I sure was glad of what I got for Christmas I hardly ever play with my doll. All I want is a ring and a ball for next Christmas and some nuts, apples and oranges. Calvin wants a shot gun. I don't know what Grace wants. I saw your picture in my reader where you was making toys. I have not much to tell. I will close. Good love. Answer soon.

Geraldine Thrasher.

Mr. & Mrs. Bridge Club

Mrs. Charlie Frank Green entertained the members of the Mr. and Mrs. Bridge Club and a few friends Tuesday night naming Miss Louise McLendon of Waco as special guest.

These were cut for by Mesdames Vernon Roberts, Bert Miller, A. E. Green, Shofner Sterling and Dan Collins. The party plates contained peach salad, bread and butter sandwiches, cracker, pickle and iced tea.

100 Per Cent Rating For 15 Boy Scouts of Heart Texas District

Fifteen Boy Scout Troops of the Heart of Texas Council showed a rating of 100 per cent for the lastmonth according to the monthly report of the activities of this council just received by the local members of the organization. This rating includes meetings, attendance, tests and camping and is figured on a basis developed by Dean W. S. Allen of Baylor University, Waco and A. J. Lawrence, Scout Executive.

Troop ratings by towns showed Marlin, Hewitt and Walnut Springs 100 per cent; Temple 97.7 per cent; Belton 97.5 per cent; Waco 93.4 per cent. Rosebud 89.5 per cent; Gatesville 88:6 per cent; McGregor 80.2 per cent; West 80.1 per cent and Cameron 80 per cent.

The report also shows that training courses for the citizens were held in each town of the area and that over 400 men have taken part. Full committees have been appointed in all the towns and the newly organized area council is beginning to function in an enthusiastic manner.

At the last executive board meeting held recently in Waco, a large attendance was present with representatives from all the towns in the council who reported excellent progress in all sections of the area. Following the dinner held for the visiting members of the Board the entire group attended the largest Court of Honor ever held in Waco, when two boys were made Eagle Scouts and 117 others received merit badges.

Extensive plans for the summer camp for scouts are under way and it is the belief of L. C. Alexander, President of the Heart of Texas Council, that this year's camp will excel previous outings of this kind both in numbers and interest. Full details of the summer camp plan will be available in a few days and will be made public at that time.

ROYALTY PLAY TO FURNISH ENTERTAINMENT FOR PEOPLE OF CITY

"The Ghost Bird" the mystery play in four acts will be given at the Yoe High School auditorium Thursday evening (Tonight) for the benefit of the Cameron Firemen and under the auspices of the Cameron Dramatic Club.

This play was recently given at the Legion Hall and it is being shown again on the insistance of those who saw it and many who did not get an opportunity to see the play.

The success of the production is due to the excellent talent taking the various roles and to the direction of Leo Weaner and Jack Hardin.

The people of Cameron have purchased a large number of tickets in advance and the auditorium should be crowded tonight when the curtain is raised. Good comedy between all acts. The following is a synopsis of the play:

A life and death contest of wits between a super crook and a master mind of the police detective force. The super crook known by the sinster title of the vulture is the first to score in the contest. His arch enemy is mysteriously murdered. The crime is committed in an isolated farm house, where the murdered man has been invited by a would be friend as chief of a party of guests. Naturally everyone in the house falls under suspicion, especially as practically all have good reasons to hate the murdered man. Although the unraveling of the murder mystery is presumarly in the hands of a police detective he receives copious suggestions from a comical hick correspondence school detective, who specializes in finger prints and is just full of bright ideas. Though these sugestions are received with scorn some of them prove to be valuable and in the end it is the amatuer fingerprinter who digs up the clew that leads to the capture of the murderer and who prevents his escape. Thrills and laughter are mingled with wits created by the funny sleuth.

Castles & Kings

TODAY . . castles are rather passe, and kings are in the discard, but even in their heyday they could boast of no such things as you take for granted.

No king could command the services which are at your beck and call. No castle contained the comfort and conveniences which are intrinsic features of even the smallest apartment or the modest bungalow. Few even had a clock.

Yet some people today dwell in medieval inconvenience. There are hundreds of homes without a telephone!

Is your "castle" up-to-date, or do you have to run over to your neighbor's to telephone?

You will find that the cost of telephone service is much less than it is worth, so valuable that you'll wonder how you ever got along without it.

Better apply for a telephone today.

Texas Thoroughbreds

Did you know that there are some two hundred Texans engaged in breeding and raising thorobred race horses; that there are several million dollars invested in thoroughbreds in the state, with at least one stable of such horses valued at more than a million and several where the investment runs into hundreds of thousands? Did you know that a large number of the fastest horses on the race tracks of this country are Texas bred and raised, and that profitable Texas industry is breeding and training race horses for Eastern horsemen? Did you know that horsemen generally regard Texas as about the best State in the country in which to raise and train horses? I did not know any of these things until I spent a day recently at the Brownlee ranch in Burnet county, where I saw some of the best thoroughbred horses and mares of the State and learned something about a business of which I, along with most other Texans, know very little. Houghton Brownlee, an Austin lawyer and owner of the ranch who is also what he terms "acting president" of the Texas Thorolghbred Horse Breeders' Association, was my host and informant.

Reviving the Business

Horse racing has been "in bad" in Texas for a number of years and justly so because of the practices of bookmakers and the lack of any uniform, legalized control. Horsemen frankly state that bookmaking ,betting, drinking and 'trickery' have been responsible for conditions which the best class of horsemen do not approve, but which they are powerless to control: They believe that State regulations, supervision and control under proper legislation would make horse racing in Texas the popular pastime and sport that it is in the North and in European countries, and would also soon make Texas the greatest thoroughbred breeding and training country in the entire world. They say it is recognized that the soil here, underlaid as much of it is with limerock, produces the grass that makes the best bones; that the dry, sunshiny climate devolops the best lungs and heart action; that horses pastured on mesquite grass sod, on limestone subsoil and trained in the light Texas air have unequalled powers of endurance.

Why Regulate Racing?

They regard racing contests as essential to the development of race horses, just as the schools regard football, baseball an dbasketball contests helpful in the deveopment of the best athletes. Breeders want to train their horses where the stables can contest with each other under the protection of the law and free from the objectionable practices that have practically ruined public racing, and in a climate such as Texas has in winter, but which can be found nowhere else except in Mexico, where gambling and drinking are at their worst. They want to know in advance under what rules and regulations they will have to race their horses, whereas now every racing association makes its own rules and often changes them without a moment's notice and even the most reputable fair and racing associations are at liberty to let out the racing privileges to persons who too often resort to questionable methods of increasing their profits. Texas horsemen believe that State control under proper legislation will encourage racing as it has in other States, and will bring to Texas thousands of Estern and Northern horses every winter for training, and that horse racing will become a source of great profit to Texas, as well as stimulus and encouragement to the thoroughbred industry of the State.

Hereford Ships Mules

Hereford has become a large concentration and shipping point for mules. The North Plains country is producing mules of a kind that are sought, and large shipments are being made to all sections of the country. More than 70 carloads have been shipped from Hereford recently and buyers are searching the country for more. The tractor is growing in popularity, but those who raise good mules have no fear of the competition of the motor driven machine.

Agricultural College Tours

Tours to the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College have become quite popular. Recently more than 1000 Burleson County farmers, farm boys and girls, and some business men, made a pilgrimage to the College. The visit had a two-fold purpose: to give the visitors opportunities to learn many things pertaining to late agricultural methods, and to acquaint them with the importance of the agricultural advantages offered by the college.

Farm Classes Popular

More than 8,000 boys are studying vocational agriculture in Texas in 253 departments, according to a statement recently made by the State supervisor of agricultural education. They are studying, in the elementary schools, improved farm methods and practices and fitting themselves to do farming under much better methods than those practiced by their fathers. Many of them are becoming so infatuated with farming that they will seek advanced training at agricultural colleges after finishing the elementary courses.

San Saba Plans Airport

San Saba is among the smaller cities making plans for securing ground for an airport. San Saba is on the Pecan Belt Highway that will extend through the state from Fort Sam Houston at San Antonio to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, which is the proposed route for a Federal military highway between these two points. San Saba is showing good judgment in getting an airport "while the getting is good."

Menard Mineral Claims

Large deposits of minerals, aside from oil, gas, coal and lignite, are said to exist in Menard county. Mineral rights recently obtained on 546 acres at $10.00 an acre plus a two per cent perpetual royalty is the first step being taken to develop these minerals. Geologists say that there are all indications that the other mineral wealth of Texas far surpasses that of the oil and gas which is making Texas so rich.

Gonzales County Park

The Gonzales Inquirer says that there is no more beautiful spot any where in Texas than the County Park, "a pretty retreat nestling on the banks of the San Marcos,' and that numerous tourists from other states are stopping there these days, all of them enthusiastic in their praise of the beautiful park. The tourists travel for the season is already under way, and if a place wishes to have any considerable part of that travel the "beauty spots must be cleaned up and put in shape to induce tourists to tarry awhile.

Community Paper

Adamsville, in Lampasas county, has started a community paper, 250 copies of which will be published and mailed to the community homes once each week for at least three months, the purpose being to create a better community interest and especially to furnish a means of thoroughly advertising to its own people and through them to others, the community fair to be held next summer.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

Miss Henderson Honored With Bridge

Miss Louise Atkinson entertained very cleverly for Miss Agnes Henderson last Thursday evening at the family home on Thirteenth Street.

Baskets of roses was the motif featured in all decorations, table accessories and refreshments. Many baskets of lovely pink radiance roses adorned the living room.

Several games of bridge were enjoyed and partners were matched in an interesting way. As the players progress the table at which the honoree was seated cut for the honor for the next game with her.

After play time cards were removed and linen covers with napkins were placed on the table in centers of which were green bowls filled with pink roses and these were cut for by Miss Helen Flinn, Miss Winnie Henderson, Mrs. Eber Flinn and Miss Florence Atkinson who in turn presented hers to Miss Agnes Henderson. The hostess assisted by her mother served pink ice cream in rose design with angel food squares embossed in rose motif on green plates. The hostess presented the honor guest with a powder box in shape of a rose with yellow butterfly decoration.

Mrs. A. J. Dossett and daughter, Miss Francis, Mrs. Eula McClendon and Mrs. Emma Dossett Wilson all attended the reception given last Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Henley.

Library Day For Cameron, April 27

The last Friday in April has in the past been set aside as Library Tag Day. On this day tags are sold and books are given to the library to help make the Yoe High School Library the bes thigh school library in the Texas schools.

During the past two years hundreds of volumes of books have been added to the collection in the library by this method. The Yoe High School is growing rapidly and the library must keep step with the demands of the school, this is a difficult thing to do when you take into consideration the number of times each year that many books of the library are used, they wear out and must be replaced. But by hard work we have muilt up one of the best libraries in the past few years that is tobe found in the schools of the state, many rank the library as the strongest point in our high school, and all visitors and inspectors compliment us on our library. But at the same time we must continue to build, so any help in the way of books, money or periodicals will be appreciated by the entire school.

The young folks marched through the Country Club grounds and across the road into Mr. Batte's pasture where they enjoyed their lunch around a large fire. Stories and games were greatly enjoyed. During the afternoon Mrs. Kenney and Mrs. John Green called as special guests.

WHAT WE THINK

By FRANK DIXON

Oil is good for all machinery but not for political machines.

The human animal improves very slowly and never learns by experience. In our present day and generation, the fool human thinks that money is the chief end of man. He does all he can to deplate the soil and extract all of the natural resources with the idea of accumulating money. Then he dies and leaves it all and no one cares a whoop.

When will man learn that as a general thing a man must pussyfoot, if he gets anywhere politically. Why? Because the voters will not vote for a positive character as a rule.

If there was such a thing as an official fool killer, he would be worked overtime.

One of those statesme n that tries to put over appropriations, exclaimed the other day to Congress, "a pistol shot would start war." It does not take that much, "a squirt gun might do."

Every columnist has it in for old Bill Shiftless. Old Bill is not as great a fool as you think. New, there is Johnnie Hustle, he's grown a big crop of corn, wheat, hay, eac., but he can not get enough for it to pay the interest on his mortgage. Old Bill has landed a government job with good pay and a nice warm place to rest during the winter while Johnnie Hustle is slopping hogs and milking cows. Oh, this is a great life if you hustle.

I have often wondered why men had such a lot of room for brains and so little there.

When a man has nothing to say he gets a great reputation for wisdom. When a man does talk he gets a reputation for being a fool because he does not agree with the other fellow.

Henry Ford thinks the McNary-Haugen bill a fool thing and so do we. One time we agree. Henry further says that the time will come when we will do away with the cow, sow and hen. We will not be here then, so why worry. We will let someone else solve that problem.

Can anyone tell who married the rajah.

The trouble is that pretty soon now, stories will be sifting through about what a dog's life a rajah's wife leads.

We are one who is not going to rave about it.

An old acquaintance stopped the bystander and remarked: "I hear that they tried to convict a man the other day of arson because he had matches in his pocket. I wonder how that would fix me. Here's a nold fashioned jack knife that I have carried for many years. You see that in addition to its blades it has a corkscrew in the back. Now what worries me is, if they should ever catch me with this in my pocket it might go a longway toward convicting me of being a bootlegger." We had to tell him it certainly would be a circumstance.

One of the marked changes in modern life is the passing of the large homes and dwellings, and in their place the demand for the small bungalow or the apartment house. Even in a rural town this change is becoming apparent. The bystander wonders if the old home life is getting out of date. Families are becoming smaller and do not need so much house room. Automobiles are keeping the people more out of doors. Cafes and restaurants are increasing in number and quality. The necessity for a home seems to be diminishing. A place to do a little light housekeeping and to sleep meets all present day needs. This may make for better and happier life but we doubt it. The next generation of children will know nothing of the pleasure their fathers and mothers had in the large, old-fashioned hom es,and will lose the helpful influence of close family ties that existed in them.

BUICK leads the fashion parade

Fashionable throngs . . . sparkling motor cars . . . and standing out like a frock from Paris—today's Buick!

Fleet, low lines, suggesting rocket-like getaway and unrivaled power . . . glistening colors, vivid and varied as the harmonies of Spring . . . and soft, rich upholsteries, delightful to the sight and touch.

Luxury like this ordinarily costs a thousand dollars more.

But Buick leads any other three cars in its field in dollar for dollar sales; and this tremendous volume makes possible unequaled value.

You may as well have a fine car, when you can buy it at Buick's price. Smart—youthful—colorful—Buick leads the fashion parade.

AN INSTITUTION MENACED

Congress has before it a bill providing for the erection, maintenance and renting of outdoor mail boxes for rural free delivery routes. The author of the bill visualizes a time when rural mail boxes will be standardized and of artistic design and color, and whn one multi-compartment box will have supplanted the motley crew of one-family boxes that now stand in irregular rows at highway intersections and rural settlements. The idea is to establish order and beauty in the jungle of mail receptacles and to rid the highways of unsightly metal containers, crudely painted with owners names and supported on unpainted posts that invariably lean at a precarious angle.

Some years ago when rural mail carriers began discarding horses for automobiles the postoffice department heard many protests because the carrier came and went too quickly. The rural folk wanted time to beat the carrier to the gate after seeing him round the bend down the road. Neither will the farmer surrender his old-fashioned mail box without a fight. It is grotesque, dinged and far from perfect in a utilitarian way, but it is the symbol of outdoor life. There is bound to be resistance to this new step in the urbanization of the universe.

When the postoffice department notifies its rural delivery users that they can aid in the beautification and standardization of the rural landscape by paying a quarterly rental for a government mail box it will learn that there are some people who still consider the old ways good enough.

SECRET OF POPULARITY

Many folks, particularly young people of reserved natures, worry because they ar not 'popular.' They envy folks who always have admirers and friends. Many people of superior intellect look down on popularity. They feel it shows too easy-going nature. They hold that if a person is to live sincerely and do his duty, he must often antagonize others, and make himself exceedingly unpopular.

Popularity comes in different ways. In the old days of free liquor a lot of people acquired popularity by the freedom with which they 'set 'em up.' This was the basis on which many politicians got their start. They were always ready to line up their friends in front of the brass rail and have several rounds "on me." Many people win popularity by free spending, by living extravagantly and scattering cash in all directions.

On the other hand many people acquire popularity by devoting themselves to some public cause. College boys who carry on student activities, usually acquire popularity. They are entitled to it because they have to devote much time to maintaining the reputation of their institution.

Similarly in community life. Many people acquire popularity just by giving a great deal of effort to public activities, often more than superior persons who criticise them are willing to devote to such causes. Many people acquire popularity by the friendly interest they show to everybody, by a winsome smile and cordial manner.

People who live self-absorbed lives are not popular and do not dserve to be. Any person can acquire a certain measure of popularity by manifsting interest and doing helpful things for others and performing service for the community.

WHISTLERS

Whistling is a boy's own music. It is as natural for him to whistle as it is for a bird to sing—although the music is not always as melodious. It is as instinct with boys as throwing stones and raiding orchards and corn fields. And not even when he becomes an "old boy" does he forget how.

Like the charm of music that soothes the savage beast, whistling has a magic charm that stills the fears and instills courage in the youthful breast. A boy is never alone as long as he can whistle. At day he whistles out of sheer joy and enthusiasm, and abroad alone at night he finds comfort and protection in his shrillest whistle.

A boy reprimanded, a servant dismissed, goes away whistling, if he dares. He wishes to express contempt, and he succeeds, at least, in enraging the object of his scorn. A hobbldehoy who commits some breach of the proprieties commonly bursts into a whistle. Dr. Johnson considered it a "nice trait of character" if one could avoid the appearance of servility by whistling as he went about carrying out the order of another.

Why is whistling, like so many other human practices, restrained in society by unwritten rules of etiquette? Is it because melodious whistlers are rare or because to give vent to one's innermost feelings is considered evidnce of bad breeding? In this connection it will be remembered that one of the first laws of etiquette forbids the man acting like a boy.

Her father never gets a chance to give her away if her small brother does.

Branchville News

We had a splendid rain Saturday and most everybody has their cotton planted and lots of it is up. If it will just get warm the cotton will begin to grow.

There was a good crowd at the B. Y. P. U. Sunday night. The union was redivided into two groups, with Miss Sarrah Harlan captain of group one and Mr. J. C. Judkins captain of group two. Each group has started in this quarter to make a better record than was made last quarter. That is such a fine spirit to have and if each one will bring a better record and be determined to do better I am sure it will not be long before our B. Y. P. U. will have grown until each member will be proud of the standard and will be glad to own up to the fact that they are members of the Branchville B. Y. P. U.

Our president, Miss Elizabeth Peel was absent Sunday night as she is in Houston visiting her brother, Homer Peel but the vice-president, Mr. Willis Looney took her place and everything went on in the usual manner.

Miss Raley had the honor last week of being one of the guests to attend a reception at the Governor's mansion. She visited her sister at Taylor for the week end and her sister is a member of the Taylor Music Club and this club was being entertained in the mansion. Miss Raley was one of the lucky guests, we say lucky because it is quite unusual and somewhat of an honor to be entertained by the governor.

Two of our Branchville girls had the honor of going to the District Meet at Waco. Miss Dorothy Foster Senior and Miss Virginia Looney, Junior. Miss Foster got two first places in the district and will get to go to the state meet. Miss Virginia Looney didn't get first place but she got a place and we are so proud that two of our girls received places in the district and are more proud of Miss Foster, for winning two first places and everyone here is behind her and know that if she does her best at the state meet she will bring back honors.

Mrs. M. R. Looney, Miss Raley and Mrs. Fred Smith and daughters Francis and Edith went to Waco for the week end.

Miss Rushing went to Waco last week end.

All of our Branchville Houstonians were here for the week end. We feel like all of them still belong to Branchville even if they are in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harlan and Nora Kathryn were here from Houston. Mr. Harlan has been with the Ford plant and has been for the past three years and has advanced as fast as time would permit and now holds a good position.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harlan were here also from Houston. He has been employed by Kress for nearly two years. He likes his work and is far along the road to success. Kress requires his men to work fo rhim a certain length of time and complete a business course before he permits them to manage a store. Mr. Harlan has finished both of these requirements and now there is only one man ahead of him and am sure when he gets a store he will make a record of it.

Our other boy that was home from Houston was Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Porter. Mr. Porter is employed by the Houston Gas Company and is making a splendid record with them. Mr. Porter was a graduate of A. & M.College and of course was able to get a good position.

Irvin and Herman Harlan were home for the week end from A. & M. College.

As so many of the Harlans were home Sunday Mrs. H. V. Harlan and Mrs. A. Harlan had a family reunion Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Porter and Mary Ruth and Miss Dorothy Foster were guests also and a great spread was enjoyed. The table was laid with 20 plates and all ate at one time. The menu consisted of baked chicken and dressing, boiled ham, fish, fruit salad, English peas, pickles, ice tea, pineapple cream and angle food cake. Everyone enjoyed the day and dinner so much and are anxious for the time to come to have another day like it.

Mr. Fred Smith went to San Antonio this week end.

There was a literary program at the school house last Friday night There was a big crowd present and after the program there was a party.

Mrs. W. C. Henderson and children have gone to Houston and Galveston to visit Mrs. Henderson's sister and mother.

Correct Dress Is Demonstration Club Topic, Ben Arnold

The Ben Arnold H. D. Club met with Mrs. F. Folschinsky Wednesday April 18, 1928. Mrs. Vogelsang presiding.

The lesson was 'Correct Dress' and a very interesting lesson we found it to be. Miss Bartholomew demonstrated beyond a doubt the fat, no I mean stout, women should never wear a dress with anythink except a V shaped neck while the tall rounded willowly form whose neck rises like a column from alabaster shoulders could wear just any old kind of a collar.

We found it very instructive, also very much dissatisfied with some of our dresses which we feel sure should go into the discard.

We got all excited and enthused over our prospective trip to A. & M. College May 4, 1928. It is to be Milam County Day down there. Our agents are hoping for a thousand strong from Matchless Milam.

Those who do not know the way, may meet Miss Bartholomew at Maysfield about eight o'clock a. m. and all are to meet at the extension building at A. & M.

Mrs. Bergum will have the double action sifters at our next meeting and the ones interested will have the seventy-five cents handy. We are also to have a canning contest. A splendid prize is to be offered for the one who excells in quality, quantity and variety, for the entire year. Our next meeting is to be with Mrs. A. Knipp. The subject will be "The Making of a Distinctive Dress."

Now you see Editor-man, I have not said a word about either of our agents. It is my aim to go along with them to A. & M. and I am trying to please them in every way possible.

Methodist Church

Our Sunday School attendance last Sunday was the biggest since Christmas. It is gaining right along. That is just fine.

The Leagues are taking on new interest, too. They meet at 7:00 this week. Juniors at 2:00 p. m.

The pastor will preach at 11:00 and 8:00. The attendance at the morning hour last Sunday was fine. There was a filled auditorium for the play put on by the Leaguers at 7:30. We are looking for big crowds this Sunday. The pastor appreciates the faithfulness of the folks.

The evening service will be of special interest. The subject is "Are You a Christian?" Let the preacher tell you at 8:00.

Then our big choir will help with some good music. Let's show our enjoyment of their good work by being there to hear them. You will enjoy the congregational singing in our song service.

School Play

A school play will be given by the pupils of St. Anthony's School at the K. of C. Hall, Tuesday, May 1, at 8:15 p. m. Admission Adults 35c; children 20c. Benefit St. Monica's church.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping." Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Cameron Student at University Aids In Texas Union Project

Austin, Texas, April 17.—A student from the city of Cameron is taking an active part in making a success of the million dollar University of Texas Union project, it is shown in the list of students in the army of four hundred who are carrying on the campus campaign, starting April 9, and lasting one week.

Ox Higins of Dallas, stellar football player of the University, has been selected as chairman of the campus campaign, with Miss Gyneth Stugard of Alamo as co-chairman. These will lead the four hundred students in a whirlwind campaign which will make it possible for every student on the campus of the University to have an interest in this project.

The University Union campaign in the state is at its height at the present time, it is explained by H. D. Cross, financial director, and Wm. L. McGill, vice chairman, who are in close touch with the state campaign which was launched at the suggestion of Hon. T. W. Gregory, chairman of the campaign committee.

The objective in the drive is a half million dollars from ex-students, students and others interested in the welfare of the University and the state. This fund, supplemented by an appropriation of $600,000 from the board of regents, will go to erect three large buildings on the campus, an auditorium-gymnasium, a women's activity building and a students' union building, around which students and ex-student life outside the class room will center.

Standardization of Electricity

Londoners have sixty different electric light and power plants to deal with and thirty-nine different kinds of power. They have a wide—or wild—assortment of voltages and frequences. Light globes and appliances require different types of plugs. Confusion results, and industry is held back.

America is twenty-five years or more ahead of Europe in prosperity and living conditions largely because of the standardization of electricity. Cross-country lines supply the small town with electric service equal to that of the large town—and vastly superior to that of foggy London.

Texas has electric service equal to the best available anywhere in the world—in no small part due to the development program of this company which has built its 2,774 miles of transmission lines to meet requirements of the present and immediate future.

Furthermore, these cars carry the official red tag "with an OK that counts" which shows the true condition under which the car is offered for sale.

Mrs. Sarah M. S. Macune

The people of Cameron will be deeply grieve dto learn of the death of Mrs. Sarah M. S. Macune in Ft. Worth recently. The following from the Texas Christian Advocate will be of interest and many here who knew the family will be glad to preserve this clipping:

Born November 1, 1851 in Wayne County, Kentucky. Died at Fort Worth, Texas, February 23, 1928, age 76 years, 3 months 23 days.

Her parents John W. and Mary Vickery, moved to Guadalupe County, Texas in 1853, and later, just before the war, settled at Salado, Bell County. She attended school at Salado College and graduated in 1871 in the days of its great prosperity.

She was married to Charles W. Macune, at Burnett, Texas, September 1, 1875. Six children were born to this union, the oldest daughter, Mary and the oldest son, Charles, are deceased, but her husband and four children survive to mourn their loss. The oldest is Mrs. I. S. Johnson of Sabine Pass, Texas who has six living children and four grand children; next is Dr. J. W. Macune of Ballinger, Texas, who has two children; next Rev. Dennis Macune of Smithville, who has four children. next Miss Katherine Macune, who remains at home with her father.

Mrs. Macune with her husband and all the family connection celebrated her gilden wedding September 1, 1925, two and one half years before her death.

She suffered a stroke of paralysis January 9, 1927 and never fully recovered from it.

She had from childhood always been a devoted Christian. She knew for some time before her death that the end was approaching, and told her daughter that she was ready and willing to go. She suffered much but without complaint and the end came peacefully and quietly in the presence of her family and her pastor.

She was a member of Boulevard Methodist church and took great interest in the work of the church. She was held in very high esteem by the entire membership.

When her husband entered the minsmtry in 1901 she willingly applied herself to all the duties and hardships of a circuit rider's wife, living happily and contentedly on a meager salary. Her influence and her prayers were a great help to him, and she was always loved by her people they were serving.

May the blessings of the Heavenly Father attend the devoted husband and children and bring them, when life's work is finished to the home He has prepared for those that love Him.

E. P. Williams, Pastor.

CRACKLINGS

Old timer says he wears lace work socks. We did not understand what he meant until he removed his shoes.

One thing past generations of men did not have to worry about, they never knew that so many stockings wrinkled at the knees.

Many people imagine that unless they show their bristles constantly they will be imposed upon.

An Osage Indian is said to have mortgaged all his property to purchase nine automobiles. Here is another indication that the Indian has at last accepted civilization.

"No, I never read love stories," declared the modern girl, "but I've sure listened to a lot of 'em.

To be forced to do without and be able to look as though you liked it, is the very essence of good sportsmanship.

I could never understand why the horseshoe was chosen the emblem of luck. It can't even make both ends meet.

I note in the Forbes magazine in his two live editorials he says: "Farm land should recover some." The next remark seems to some of us appropriately placed. "Watch the growth of the 'Natural Gas, this year."

Some folks are too zealous to obey the laws of traffic on the road to success. They find the "no parking" signs convenient.

Love that old gal "Work" or you surely will get the cold shoulder.

We hear a lot nowadays about science and religion being at loggerheads. Roger Babson tells about a visit of Chas. P. Steinmetz, that wonderful wizard of electrical science, who was recognized by the General Electric Company and many other great organizations as the greatest scientist of this century. While Mr. Babson was talking over prospective future inventions in connection with radio, aeronautics, power transmission, etc., asked, "What line of research will see the greatest development in the next fifty years?" After careful thought, Steinmetz replied, "Mr. Babson, I think the greatest discovery will be made along spiritual lines. Here is a force which history clearly teaches has been the greatest power in the development of men and nations. Some day people will realize that material things do not bring happiness and are of little use in making men and women creative and powerful. Then the scientists of the world will turn their laboratories over to the study of God and prayer and spiritual forces which as yet have hardly been guessed at. When that day comes the world will see more advancement in one generation than it has seen in the past four.

Abe Lincoln said: "It is the man who does not express an opinion whose opinion I want." Too bad some of our religiously regular corner hangers can't get warmed up to the wisdom of Abe.

At most society functions you will find the women out in force—and the men by force.

The laws of chaice and of nature show in a preponderant majority of cases that the man who does big things in life is the man who thinks big, ambitious thoughts, has great confidence and great energy to keep going; he's the man who doesn't fall for every diversion, and who doesn't take advantage of every excuse to loiter, but works hard and steadily during working hours and plays hard, rests deeply and sleeps soundly and enjoys good health of a clean body and mind—such a man can not fail.

There's a lot said about women's rights, but very little mention is made of women's lefts.

If you sleep near an open window, take a lesson from the experience of a bird in New York, the other night. He formed a habit in childhood of huggnig a big pillow when he slept. In consequence when he rolled from bed through an open window down three stories, he just received slight bruises. Acquire the habit and try it.

Headlines reporting the convention on International Law Council states a few minutes after the council opened the National Women's Party put in a formal request to be permitted to have "a few" words. The request was granted. When the hour of adjournment came they were still using a "few words."

Mrs. Dossett Honored

Mrs. W. H. Henley entertained with a beautiful reception on last Thursday for her niece, Mrs. Stanton Dossett, a recent bride who will make her home here with her husband, Stanton Dossett, manager of the Cameron Compress.

Pink radiance roses gave floral charm to the living room, hall and dining room. Guests were met at the door by Mrs. Wm. Henderson who in a very beautiful manner. presented each one to the receiving line in which stood Mrs. Henley, the hostess, Mrs. Stanton Dossett, Mrs. A. J. Dossett Mrs. Eula McClendon of Waco, mother of the honoree, Miss Agnes Henderson, a bride of the month, Miss Francis Dossett and Mrs. Emma Dossett Wilson. This was indeed a most pleasant and enjoyable afternoon for friends of Mrs. A. J. Dossett and her estimable families who formerly lived in Cameron and left behind them a legion of friends who always welcome their return. As friends passed down the receiving line they lingered long to visit with this lovely friend of former days and extended to her son and wife a hearty welcome to Cameron. Mrs. Emma Dossett Wilson also lived in Cameron in the home of Mrs. Dossett and met a host of friends. Girlhood friends of Miss Francis extended to her a welcome on this return visit.

Mrs. J. C. Martin invited guests to the dining room. The tea table was laid with an exquisitely embroidered cover that almost reached the floor at the four corners. The center was a large silver basket of beautiful pink radiance rosebuds. Silver containers held pink and white mints and trays held cake squares embossed in white. Those assisting in serving cream, cake squares and mints were Misses Helen Flinn, Katherine Flinn, Mesdames Hamilton Bonnet and Charlie Frank Green. About one hundred women called during the afternoon.

Branchville News

The freeze did quite a lot of damage to the cotton and garden crops. But Sunday was such a beautiful day that it made all feel better and everyone seemed to have a smile on their face and looked happy.

There was a good crowd at church and Sunday school.

The church was crowded Sunday night as we had so many visitors. The Little River B. Y. P. U. came down and gave us a program. The program was well gotten up and was very interesting. They dramatized "The Well of Knowledge" and each one on the program went to the well and drew up from this source, which flows from God, information on the subject that each in turn discussed very efficiently. The music was splendid, which consisted of songs, a quartette, a piano solo and a solo by Miss Mary Freeman, who teaches at Jones Prairie. Brother Lemons closed the program with a prayer. Everyone enjoyed this program so much and want them to come again.

We were invited by them to go and give them a program. Our B. Y. P. U. realizes we have something to do to entertain them for they have so many young people and they gave us such a good program, althought we are little in number we are hoping to return their visit and know that each will do their best, even if our group is small.

Miss Raley went to Taylor this week end to visit her sister who is teaching there.

Miss Rushing visited her sister in Baylor University Saturday and Sunday.

Doors in motor cars usually have been—just doors. In the efforts of automobile engineers to step ahead of the competitive procession practically every other unit of design has undergone radical changes but doors have not varied much from those of 10 years ago.

For the 1928 season, however, the Hudson organization has worked out interesting new door development in the Hudson Super-Six de luxe models.

Three Main Objects

"For these cars, Hudson designers went after three major points," said Mr. Horstmann, local Hudson, Essex dealer. "First the doors should be permanently silent. Second, they should assist in distinctive and modish appearance. Third, they should be staunch and weather-tight.

"The usual idea of an automobile door has been to build it heavy and strong, and to fit it closely and snugly to the body—the closer the better. But in these bodies another line of thought altogether is followed. The upper half of each door is of standard design—heavily constructed and fitting tightly. But above the belt line the structure consists only of a strong but slender steel frame to hold the window glass in place.

"The doors close against a hollow springy rubber tubing, with no metal-to-metal contact whatever. Further, a quarter inch clearance is maintained between the outer edges of the door and the door jams. The door is thus literally insulated from the body, yet a tight and permanent joint is assured.

"The whole summed-up result is individuality and distinction of appearance ,permanent silence, and better visibility. Similar designs have been used in custom cars costing from $5000 to $7000, but Hudson is the first standard maker to adopt the idea.

Aluminum Bodies

"Another distinctive item in these models is the use of aluminum body Panels instead of the customery sheet steel. This saves the weight of one or two passengers in each body, making the cars more economical to drive and 5 to 10 miles an hour faster. Aluminum is more expensive than steel, but expense has not been spared in these deluxe cars.

"The three cars in the Hudson line embodying these improvements are the Sedan, the landau sedan and the family-sized 7-passenger sedan. All these bodies are manufactured in New England by one of the industry's best known de luxe builders. Hudson buys the plant's whole output."

WALKER'S CREEK CHURCH AND COMMUNITY NEWS

ODELL JAMESON, Pastor

Sunday School Rally Day

Although we may be a little late with our write-up about our fine Sunday School Rally Day on Easter Sunday, we are none the less enthusiastic over the results of it. We had a great day and a great time. People came from all over the county, and many from out of the county, to be with us. It was cold to be sure, but the warm friendship and the fine dinner served by the ladies kept all comfortable.

Mrs. H. H. Chamberlain, who is our fine superintendent, is to be congratulated on the fine work she is doing for our Sunday school. Let each officer and teacher continue to back her up and she will make it a greater success.

One of the latest things she has put over and we might say one of the best things she could do, is the Sunday school study course of the last two weeks. Brother Cole, our Missionary, taught the S. S. Manuel, and as a result eleven will receive their diplomas. Every teacher took the course. The diplomas will be awarded soon.

B. Y. P. U. Social

On last Friday night the B. Y. P. U. had a social at Grandpa Hightower's new home. There were at least 40 present who enjoyed the many games played. The B. Y. P. U. is planning on going to Branchville soon to render a program. We hope they will be able to make the trip and to pay back the visit that Union made about two months ago.

S. S. Class Entertained

The Beginner, Primary and Junior classes of our Sunday School enjoyed a fine picnic at Curry on last Friday afternoon from three to five, given by their teachers, Mrs. Rosa Clifton, Mrs. E. L. Chamberlain and Miss Ethel Angell.

Here and There

We missed Mrs. H. H. Chamberlain from her duty Sunday morning. She had been sick most of the week, but by Sunday afternoon she was able to be up.

Mr. Mock, who has been sick, is now able to go about his duties. He will be able to attend church services Sunday.

Sunday night we had a display of loyalty at our church service. If we had more people like the two men we are about to mention, the cause of Christ would not suffer as it is. Two men and a little boy passed through our country last Sunday evening, and stopped near the church to prepare their supper. Before supper was over the cars began to drive up for B. Y. P. U. and from this they judged that the church was a live one and that services were to be held. So they quickly made way with supper and came over and introduced themselves and stayed for services before traveling on. They were on their way from Tennessee to Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. McLain, from Houston are visiting their relatives at Walker's Creek for about two weeks.

One of our fine young men, Mr. Vance McLain is graduating from Ben Arnold high school this year. Vance we congratulate you, keep going.

Report comes from our school that it will be out in about three weeks. More will be said about the year's work at a later time.

Mr. and Mrs. Brock and Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Minerva, visited in our community Sunday and were at church that morning. Mrs. Brock is the sister of Mrs. L. C. Boyd and Mrs. Moore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bryant.

Nex t Sunday is fifth Sunday but the pastor will be present to fill the pulpit. Let evrybody go to church next Sunday.

Parties Given For Miss Henderson

Miss Agnes Henderson whose marriage will occur today at 3:30 at the family residence has been entertained almost daily since her announcement on April 7. Miss Agnes is one of Cameron's most talented and charming girls and is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Henderson, Sr.

Among the social courtesies extended her this week were the following: A dinner party given by Mrs. B. P. Atkinson at her home on Thirteenth Street. A noon-day luncheon given in her honor by Mrs. C. W. Ba[illegible]on Saturday. A dinner party [illegible]y Miss Sallie Kate M[illegible]ane entertained twelve [illegible]e or of Miss Hender[illegible]
